

St. Petersburg, Russia

May 25 - 29, 2016

REGISTRATION NOW OPEN!

In order to ensure that you have a printed name badge onsite, and that your name is on the meeting roster, you must register no later than May 15. Blank badges will be available at the hospitality desk for those who register after this date or onsite.

Click here to register!

The list of registered attendees will be available on the St. Petersburg event page shortly.

The IAA is currently undergoing a major upgrade to different aspects of its technology, including a new service provider for online payments. For this reason, if you encounter problems with the registration form, please make a second attempt the following day before contacting the Secretariat. If after a few attempts you are still unsuccessful, please contact Anne Lamarche.

THE IAA – presented by IAA President Malcolm Campbell

Please join Mr. Campbell and your fellow peers at the IAA session which will take place on Friday May 27 from 9:00 to 10:00 am. For volunteers new to the IAA, this will be a perfect opportunity to learn about the IAA and its operations. For those familiar with the IAA, this is a good opportunity to be updated on any changes in operations, but more importantly to connect with new colleagues and participate in the interactive part of the session.

COUNCIL SPEAKER

We are pleased to announce that Mr. Sergey Shvetsov, First Deputy Governor of the Bank of Russia will be addressing Council Delegates at their meeting scheduled on Saturday, May 28.

LUNCH SPEAKER

We are also delighted to announce that Mr. Boris Kashin will be our luncheon Keynote Speaker on Thursday, May 26.

Mr. Kashin is the Chairman of the Actuarial Council of the Central Bank of Russia, a member of the State Duma and of the Russian Academy of Sciences. His presentation "Actuarial practice in the Russian legislation" will focus on the challenges of formalizing the role of the actuarial profession in the financial market.

THIS JUST IN!!

The Russian Guild of Actuaries, the Association of Professional Actuaries and the Central Bank of Russia will jointly be hosting a one day seminar on Tuesday, May 24. This event will be complimentary for all IAA delegates and will include translation from Russian to English.

Stay tuned for program and registration information!

CONFERENCE CALLS

Committee delegates who are unable to attend their respective committee meeting(s), but wishing to participate by telephone conference, should advise Anne Lamarche by May 8. We will make every effort to accommodate requests in accordance with the equipment available on site, however we do not guarantee the quality or the success of the calls. Our usual practice of not organizing conference calls for those meetings with high attendance and held in large meeting rooms will apply to these meetings.

Please note that long distance charges will be the responsibility of the participant. Final conference call details, including dial-in number and participant code, will be communicated to participants one (1) week before the meetings. Unfortunately, we will not be able to accommodate any requests to participate by conference call received after May 8.

DEADLINES

We kindly ask our fellow member association colleagues to take into account the IAA's registration deadlines when planning their own activities outside of the IAA program.

ACCOMMODATION

The Corinthia Hotel is now sold out for the Superior room types on May 24 and 25. If you have not yet made your accommodation reservation, please contact Anna Cheshuinova at the Corinthia. She can offer an Executive level room type for the rates of: €325 for single or €345 for double occupancy.
